Sierra Nevada Tire and Wheel

Sierra Nevada Tire and Wheel owner, Jeff Bodle hosted the November Mixer at his shop at 659 Main Street, Placerville. He was recognized by Placerville's Community Pride for his contribution in returning the original Bell Tower Bell to its current location on Bedford next to the District Attorney's office. Moved during the Hwy 50 improvements several years ago, Community Pride hopes to incorporate it into a Monument Garden which will include a Vietnam Vet memorial.

In the Giving Spirit

Doug Hawkins (left) and Jennifer Eels (Right) of Western Slope Health Center and Christa Campbell of Rainbow Orchards, supported the annual Gift Basket Auction benefiting El Dorado County families needing a little help with groceries over the holidays. Our generous members helped raise $5,980 at the luncheon to which was added another $898 from the Joint Chamber Holiday Mixer raffle for a total of $6,878 given to the EDC Office of Education for their food baskets for families program.

Czech them out!

Taste of Europe owners Richard and Lenka Zellner cut the ribbon for their business at 545 Main Street, in Placerville. In the mood for something different? Try this European Restaurant with Czech, German, Italian Food, Czech Beer & Local Wine. Czech them out, seriously.

"Call the Chamber," they say ...

"They know everything," they say ... Part 2!

Some fellow Chamber professionals were asked "What is the strangest phone call you have taken or question that you have been asked?" and below are the responses. We definitely have a few we could add!

- A lady corralled a bunch of geese into her garage so they didn't get ran over. Then she didn't know what to do with them, but was concerned because her husband was going to be upset when he tried to park in the garage.
- When are you people going to pick up my trash?
- When does Business after 5 start? Just for kicks we say 4:30.
- There is a dead raccoon in my driveway, can you send someone to pick it up
- Do you know what cemetery my grandfather was buried at?
- What color ribbon should you tie around a tree when your brother-in-law commits suicide in your house?
- What is bigger, one half or three quarters?
- I found a grocery bag of yogurt in my garage that I took out of my car and forgot to refrigerate. It's been four days. Is it still good?
